The Bay Hotel

The Bay Hotel is a charming seafront hotel within a shortten to fifteen minutes drive from Phuket town. It is a hotel with a difference; following a new trend that is becoming more and more preferred around the world, each room makes the most of the surrounding, pleasant environment and breaks away from the traditional "standard" hotel room design.

At The Bay Hotel, every room is a suite: the junior suite (studio), the full suite, or the family suite with two bedrooms. Each of these suites has living area with a comfortable sofa and a dining table, a small but complete pantry, and a balcony. Rooms are bright and wonderful. You will find terra cotta tiles and wooden floors with rugs, instead of the usual carpets, wrought iron, rattan, and teak as well as the normal fabrics. Every suite has, in addition, its own a stereo set.

Of course the service is impeccable. Afterall The Bay Hotel is part of the same family as the world renowned Cape Panwa Hotel.

Our guests comprise of those who are taking a holiday break, to those who have stayed for months and years and have converted their suites into private apartments. The only thing normal, we feel, about The Bay Hotel is our rates; we think that this is a good thing and an important part of the new trend.
